

SOCIETY MATTERS

Contents:

Editorial	1
Society Matters	1
Comments on the Election	2
Horoscope	2
Soup Seer
Ramblings	2
Joke of the Month	2

The Official Newsletter of Clan Toreador in Glasgow

Your Darling Editor Speaks

Darlings! Once more I ride out, cocktail glass in one hand, bright young thing in another, ready for the trials and tribulations of attempting to bring some class to Court. It's a difficult and unrewarding job, but looking at the kindred detritus of our times I feel a calling, a vocation if you will, to ensure that there is at least one candle lit against the darkness (metaphorically speaking of course).

Anyhoo, with this in mind I have decided to put my singular talents to good use, and therefore have delved into the mucky depths of journalism (marigolds firmly in place gentle reader) to bring you a few gems contributed by the great and the good of Kindred Society. With this in mind the newsletter is a tad sparse this time round, but I am sure it will pick up.

Let the games begin!

Alexander Paul

Events of Note

You would think with such a big gap between utterances that something exciting might have occurred in the interim, but looking back over the last few months I have to admit to be struggling a tad. Individual clans have come and gone, although Malkavian seems to be in the ascendance for a change..."Look I have a split personality, which I will use as an excuse to be really annoying, but sometimes cute so you will do your best to not hit me". Lord at least with Clan Brujah you know where you stood, crash bang wallop and all that, but alas those days of low brow testosterone are far behind us. On a Malkavian notelette, Bethany has left for pastures new, sadly missed. Anyway, I do vaguely remember our ex-acting ex-Scourge in a pink taffeta dress at a previous Court, although admittedly that was the same night as 'karaoke' shudder.

Apparently he, like the dress are thankfully no longer with us.

Anyhoo, we will see if things pick up now we have some 'new blood' in town...

Alexander Paul

Isn't he a darling!

"Desire twists the darkness into an ancient evil"

Election Latest!

Looking at the front page, some of you silly people might have thought I was talking about the US Election. As if, cuh!

I was of course talking about the election of our new Keeper of the Elysium, to fill the current vacancy which has remained since the elevation of our most august Prince.

At the moment I believe there is only one candidate, Charles Randolph of Clan Tor...I mean Ventrue. I am delighted to state that this young man has, as well as the full backing of Clan Toreador, my full and personal attention pushing him forward at every opportunity!

I'm sure he's the man for the job, and I would just love it if you all thought so too.

Alexander Paul

Soup Seer Awakens

The ramblings of a madman in his alphabet soup continue apace, captured for posterity by this august publication:

"Those that twist the shadows have been bent under the yoke of another, though they know it not. Desire twists the darkness into an ancient evil that will see blood rain from the skies of Glasgow. Beware!"

Horoscope for the Month

Secretive Scorpio...

Beware dark impulses and desires this month. Someone will become an obsession to you, but watch for the sting in their tail!

Amon Sur

Clan Malkavian deciding who's the maddest...

Joke of the Month

Q: How many members of Clan Malkavian does it take to fill a hoover bag?

A: Hopefully all of them...

Anon